

TOMO PROJECT

Urban Design Lab. at the University of Tokyo

Location

TOMO locates at Fukuyama city, Hiroshima pref.

History of TOMO

drawing of TOMO at the EDO era

Tomo has developed as a harbor

Historical property left in TOMO

1.GANGI

Stairs for easy access to sea

2.HATO

Bank for erasing waves

3.JOUYATO

Traditional lighthouse

4.TADEBA

Place for repairing ships

5.FUNABANSHO

Office for administrator of harbor in old days

Townscapes

The historical city-center

Streetscapes

Landscapes

View from the sea

View from the Ioji-temple

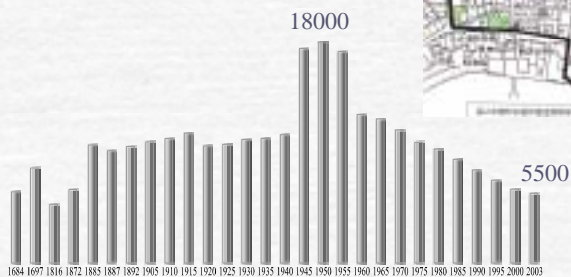

Sensui-jima island

Traffic difficulty

Depopulation & Vacant houses

Now this historical city, "TOMO" has a lot of vacant houses

Vacant houses

Parking lots

Demographic transition

The land-fill and
bridge-construction
project

The engagement of Urban Design Lab.

Cooperate with NPO
Vacant house survey
& Interview etc

Survey on historical buildings

The workshop with the local residents

Renovation of Vacant house

Before

Renovation

After

T-house2001
Exhibition event
by the students
and community museums

IFHP competition

Revitalizing Urban Coreless Spaces(2001)

Towards a Hosting Portal Town(2003)

TOMO Magazine

Now We are editing new “TOMO” magazine

Inside TOMO magazine 2001

Inside new TOMO magazine

We aim to make the new magazine understandable to everyone